

David Williams

David is now regarded as one of Australia's brightest young stars., and has worked on all of Adelaide's major media, since making his debut.

By no means a novice, David has performed along side some of the world's best including - Jimeoin, Carl Barron, Stevie Starr, The Amazing Jonathon, Sean Hughes. Judith Lucy, Greg Fleet, Matt King, Shane Bourne, Chris Franklin, Vince Sorrenti, Bruno Lucia, Steady Eddy, Julia Morris, Kitty Flanagan & Modern Problems in Science and was asked to support Michael Buble on his last Australian tour.

David has played the Melbourne International Comedy Festival ever year since 1999 with a new show each year - a testament to his writing ability. He was chosen to perform in The MICF Montreal Show Case and the Australian MICF Road show which tours all around, In 2000 David performed his one man show at The Adelaide Fringe Festival achieving full houses and rave reviews.

David is a regular cast member of Impro Sundaes (Theatre Sports) at Melbourne's Comics Lounge.

Awards and Achievements

2002 Nomination - Maurie Awards Comedian of The Year

2001 Nomination - Best Comedy Act Award on Campus - Victorian University's

1999 Runner Up - National Green Faces Competition - Canberra

1996 Winner - Triple J "Make me Laugh" - National Awards

1996 Finalist - "So you think you're funny?" - Awards Edinburgh Festival

1996 Advanced Diploma - Acting graduate of the Centre for Performing Arts

TV Credits

Rove Live

Score - Comedychannel Special

Headliners (comedy channel) 2001

Hey Hey It's Saturday (Channel Nine)

Today Tonight (Seven Network)

TV 1 (Galaxy, 7 minute Feature spots)

Live TV (London - 3 guest spots)

"Best of the Fest" (Channel Ten)

O'Loughlin On Saturday Night (ABC TV)

Radio Credits

Guest Co-host Girls Behaving Badly Fox FM

Triple J (Guest spots, interview & air play)

SA - FM (Guest spots, Co - Host, Interviews, regular air play)

5UV (Guest spots and interviews)

MMM - Written & performed for MMM & Radiowise

Festivals

Melbourne International Comedy Festival 1999, 2000 2001 2002, 2003, 2004.

Edinburgh 1996 1997

Adelaide Fringe Festival 2000, 2002, 2004

What the Critics Say

"David Williams who has a Jim Carrey look and manner brings the house down by explaining that road rage is caused by too many drivers listening to Shania Twain playing on their car radio."

USA Today